How to get to RICE center (Fakulta elektrotechnická):

By public transport:

By train: The Pilsen main station (Plzeň hl.n.) is not directly connected with international destinations except Regensburg and Munich (Germany). For trips from other cities, choose a connection to Prague first and then take the Západní Express (Western Express) to get to Pilsen in only 1 hour and 15 minutes.

By bus: Bus lines connect Pilsen with several major European cities. For more information please visit Regiojet or Flixbus.

To get to RICE center, Pilsen has a dense network of trams, trolleybuses and buses (see transport plan at the end of the document). Get off at Univerzita or Západočeská univerzita. (see maps below). Tram number 4 serves the university, and the "Univerzita" stop is located here: <https://en.mapy.cz/s/dahedudupu>

Alternatively, you can use bus lines 24, 25, and 30, or trolleybus 19, with the stop called "Západočeská univerzita" available at this link: <https://en.mapy.cz/s/puzevolunu>

For complete timetables, please visit: <https://jizdnirady.pmdp.cz/> or use Google Maps or <https://en.pmdp.cz/>

By plane:

The closest airport to Pilsen is the Václav Havel Airport Prague. To get to Pilsen, take the bus line 100 to Zličín first and change there to a bus in the direction of Pilsen.

If you cannot find a suitable connection to Prague, please also check the Karlovy Vary Airport, the Munich Airport and the Nuremberg Airport.

By car:

Pilsen is the crossroad of three main motorways: E50, E49 and E53.

Parking at RICE:

There are several parking areas at the University of West Bohemia (ZČU), with those closest to RICE available at this link: <https://en.mapy.cz/s/bozatubaju> (or map below).

Please note that the parking areas are gated, but you only need to ring the reception, and the gate will be opened for you.
